Where breathes the foe but falls before us?
With Freedom's soil beneath our feet,
And Freedom's banner streaming o'er us!

A COPPERHEAD LAMENT.—The Madison Patriot is in trouble about the vote in the house of representatives laying the peace resolutions of the patriotic secessionist, Fernando Wood, on the table. The Patriot says:

"The proposition was laid upon the table, without debate, or further action, by a vote of 38 to 59, the three republican members from this state, viz: Mr. Wheeler, (dem.) voting to lay on the table—Mr. Eldridge (dem.) voting against the motion, Mr. Brown (dem.) voting to lay on the table. The proposition was a democratic one, and in favor of a proposition to settle, if possible, peacefully, a national difficulty which force of arms has so far failed to settle. Mr. Wheeler's vote is his own—he has to account for it to his constituents, but it is widely different from what we would have expected, and different, we believe, from the general wish of the democracy of the state. If Mr. Brown was necessarily absent—his neglect to vote is excusable; if, on the contrary, he dodged the question, he has yet to learn that the democracy of the state, and of his district, endorse the man of courage—the free-spoken vindicator of the principles he professes to be the exponent of."

The positive vote of Mr. Wheeler and the dodging of Mr. Brown could hardly be expected to suit the Patriot; but what is it going to do about it? Suppose the true democracy of the state should haul the Madison copyist of the Chicago Times over the coals and deny his authority to speak for them? Whose whip would be cracking then?

The Galena Democrat publishes a list of 117 names of residents of that city omitted by the enrolling officer from the enrollment. They are all abolitionists, and the Democrat says that of the entire number there are not more than 15 who are exempt because of age, while on the enrolled lists there are scores of democrats who are clearly exempt.—Chicago Times.

Admitting this is so, the truth of which, by the way, is not established, because either the Democrat or Times says so, the editor of the Democrat, or any other person, has the power to get the omitted names on the enrollment list. The very object of the publication and posting of the lists which has been ordered by the government, is to correct any error or fraud which may exist in them. This every intelligent man knows, and every patriotic citizen will approve and be satisfied with. Nobody but an ingrain copperhead attempts to make trouble about it.

Special Town Meeting in Rock.

The inhabitants and electors of the town of Rock, in the county of Rock, are hereby notified that a special town meeting will be held in said town, in the brick school house, on the 28th inst., to decide between the hours of 9 and 10 o'clock a. m., for the purpose of raising money by tax on the taxable property of said town, sufficient to pay the cost of the war, and to correct any error or fraud which may exist in them. This every intelligent man knows, and every patriotic citizen will approve and be satisfied with. Nobody but an ingrain copperhead attempts to make trouble about it.

Dated at Rock, this 22d day of December, 1893. M. G. BURDICK, Clerk.

TELEGRAPH OFFICE.—Office hours Christmas and New Years from 8 to 10 a. m., and 6 to 1:30 p. m.

The official account of our captures during the year of the war ending at the date of General Halleck's report is as follows: Colored 52; prisoners 89,769; guns 266; small arms 44,829; boats 168; cattle 5,649; horses 1,185.

SUNDAY SCHOOL FESTIVAL.—As has been several times mentioned in "our paper," the Methodist Episcopal Sunday School of this city is holding a Christmas Festival to-morrow, Thursday, evening, at Lappin's Hall.

First on the programme is a duet and chorus, composed for the occasion by T. Martin Towne, who has charge of the music. It will be followed by varied literary and musical exercises, the presentation of the Christmas offerings of the classes to the missionary cause, and the exhibition to the audience of several articles from China and Africa, illustrating the manners, customs and superstitions of those nations.

Then comes the distribution of presents and the oyster supper. Any members of the congregation who desire to present gifts to friends, can have the privilege, by sending them during the forenoon, to-morrow, either to the hall or Sutherland's bookstore. It is hoped that parents sending presents for their own children will remember also the poor and friendless, and of their abundance contribute something to "gladden their hearts and make for them a 'Merry Christmas.'"

Members of the school are requested to be present as early as 6:30. They will enter at the stage door. Teachers will be present to see that none not actually members of the school are admitted. Doors open at 6, exercises commence at 7.

Last Night's Report.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22d.

SENATE.—Mr. Wilson introduced a bill prohibiting members of congress from appearing as counsel in any case before any civil or military tribunal where the government is interested.

The joint resolution from the house appropriating $20,000,000 for the bounties, advanced pay and premiums of enlisted men was amended by restricting the provisions of the resolution to men enlisting prior to January 5th, and providing that no bounty whatever be paid after the 5th of January except such as is authorized by existing laws. The resolution as thus amended was adopted unanimously.

The joint resolution from the house tendering a vote of thanks to Capt. John Rogers was adopted.

HOUSE.—Nothing of importance.

NEW YORK, Dec. 22d.

The government has decided that the safety of American vessels leaving this port requires that no person shall be allowed to leave this port as a passenger or otherwise on any American vessel without first receiving a passport from the marshal of this district. It is understood that a gunboat has already been stationed at Sandy Hook by Admiral Paulding to intercept every vessel leaving the port by that outlet, and another vessel at Frog's Neck, to examine passes leaving by the Sound, with instructions to detain such as are without passes. Any one can obtain the proper passport who can have his loyalty properly vouched for. The adoption of this stringent measure will probably prevent a repetition of the Chesapeake affair.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 22d.

By a gentleman who left Richmond on the 20th, we have the following information: He says the Richmond papers of the 20th, have despatches from Bristol, Tennessee, stating that General Longstreet with his army was advancing, and up about a severe battle would be fought in Virginia or on Jonesboro, Tennessee. Reinforcements from Colonel Jackson, and General Sam Johnson, were going to Longstreet.

A despatch from Meriden, Mississippi, reports that Joe Johnston's army is in motion, and it is conjectured that it intends to reinforce General Hardee. It is also rumored in Richmond, that General Lee will be sent to command in Northwestern Georgia, as the only hope of retrieving the heavy disaster to the rebels in that quarter. His army in Virginia has gone into winter quarters except one division under General Early.

Some uneasiness and excitement existed in the vicinity of Stanton, Virginia, in consequence of the near approach of General Averell's command. Imboden and Rodes were endeavoring to oppose Averell's further advance, and a fight is expected in that quarter.

The rebel congress the substitute bill has been abrogated, and all persons who have put substitutes in the army are compelled to go themselves. Henry Foot still continues his severe denunciation of the rebel administration. It is rumored that a commissioner will be sent to the court of Madrid, from the rebel government.

ST. PAUL, Dec. 22d.

On Sunday morning the American House in this city took fire and was completely consumed with all the contents. Loss, $20,000; insured for $10,000. This leaves our city with only two first-class hotels, The Winslow House, which burned about eighteen months ago, is to be rebuilt the coming summer.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22d.

Information received to-night from the army of the Potomac says, there are no indications of a retrograde movement towards Washington, as has been reported, nor is it believed that the enemy, in their present condition, are able to give us much annoyance.

The probable number of re-enlistments into the veteran corps from the army of the Potomac is estimated at 50,000.

To-Day's Report.

Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.

MORNING DISPATCHES.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 22d.

The Democrat's Fort Smith special, 22d, says: The rebel force which crossed Arkansas, going northward, was, we understand, under Wait and Quantrell. Capt. Spillman, with a portion of Indiana troops, encountered them at Warren Rock, Ohio, and routed them. The loss was about 70. They fled in all directions, but remnants, doubtless, will reorganize. It is suspected that their destination is Kansas border.—All quiet in the fort.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22d.

The Cincinnati and Philadelphia telegrams about Longstreet are pronounced here to be inventions.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22d.

Special to Times.—The House committee of ways and means, to-day, finished the naval appropriation bill. Very little reduction from estimates was made by the committee. They determined not to meet again until after the holidays, when they will take up the recommendations of the treasury, finances, etc.

The Senate, to-day, made the Pacific rail road committee a standing committee of that body, consisting of nine members. The senate judiciary committee met to-morrow to make charges against Senator Hale. More than one lawyer in the senate and house do not hesitate to say that they would rather resign their seats than surrender their professional practice in Washington.

Veteran regiments in the army of the Potomac to receive their bounty money immediately. The first installment will amount to about $300 per man. The number of men from the army of the Potomac re-enlisted for the war is over 10,000.

The sentiments of senators respecting the $300 exemption clause is wholly changed. They will strike out the exemption clause and not insert any amount in its place. The feeling is general that the army must be filled up and the war vigorously prosecuted to an end.

Senator Wilson will soon introduce a bill providing for the enlistment of soldiers in the rebellious states. Persons so enlisted may join any regiment now in the field from the loyal states they may select. The desire is to get them into veteran regiments and at the same time clear the field from which loyal states can draw troops.

AFTERNOON DISPATCHES.

(Additional by Wire)

BALTIMORE, Dec. 23d.

Political news unimportant. Cotton firmer. Breadstuffs and provisions dull and easier.

The Times says, the prize fight was a fair stand up, and ended in a decisive victory of King. Heenan was badly punished, though he had the advantage in the earlier rounds, but King had the most onderance. The fight occupied 35 minutes—25 rounds.

The Times says the accounts from all the principal continental cities are more favorable, financially and politically, than for a fortnight past.

The confederate loan remained at $5 to 40 discount.

The pirate Alabama was expected at Madras. The Florida, Georgia and Rappahannock were being rapidly fitted at French ports.

NEW YORK, Dec. 23d.

Cotton dull, 19a80; flour 5c lower; wheat heavy and lower; 14a40 14a50 spring; 14a150 Milwaukee club; 14a150 winter red; corn heavy, 12a12a in store, chiefly 12a; oats firm, 9a24a; pork firmer; lard firmer, 12a13; gold 52.

Flour firm; wheat declined 1a1/2; No. 1, spring in store, 11a11 1/2; dressed lard unchanged.

ALL SORTS OF PARAGRAPHS.

A GOOD BUSINESS.—The three principal hotels at Janesville are said to have cleared from $30,000 to $100,000 a year since December, 1893.

DEATH OF A VETERAN.—The last survivor of the massacre of Wyoming, Jeremiah Spencer, died on the 22d ult., at New Hartford, Conn.

A TIME WARNING.—The Richmond papers are warning the southern rebels generally that they must not flatter themselves that Grant will be idle during the winter. Georgia is especially notified that she must expect to feel the full weight of the "invaders."

The Waupun Times has an account of the dead body of a man named William Hopkins, better known as "One-armed Billy," being found near that place last Sunday. He had been run over by a railroad train, and was probably in liquor at the time. He was a drinking man, and in poor circumstances.

Something like $150,000,000 will be paid for bounties to the last 300,000 soldiers.

LEATH OF AN ARTIST.—The portrait painter Charles Imray, for nearly forty years a member of the National Academy of Design, and one of our ablest artists, died in New York last week, in his sixty-sixth year.

The number of immigrants landed in New York last week was 2,398, making the total for the year, so far, 149,519, against 69,494 for the corresponding period last year.

Senator Wilson's bill provides for increasing the pay of soldiers to $16 per month; giving a bounty of $400 to veteran recruits; $200 to ordinary recruits; paying a premium of $25 for procuring the soldier, and $15 the day; paying colored soldiers, as regards pay, rations, and equipments, on a footing with white soldiers.

PROGRESS OF RENOVATION IN ARKANSAS.—At Little Rock 7,000 men have come in since the occupation—5,000 of whom are in the federal army. This is within 400 of the number required by Mr. Lincoln's proclamation to renovate civil government in that state—one-tenth of the qualified electors in Arkansas being 5,400.

JAMES McCLURE, editor of the New York Freeman's Journal, delivered a lecture before the democratic club of Chicago on Tuesday evening. The Times has a report of it. It contains some fine specimens of copperhead talk. It had no avowed purpose, but was a severe attack on the Yankees, and upon "Abe Lincoln and his minions."

The lecturer regretted that so many Irishmen had enlisted in the Union army, and was sorry they had not left the native Americans to do the fighting. He dwelt upon the outrages perpetrated in the south by the New England Yankees. The Yankee soldiers robbed the women of the south of their jewels and valuables, but the Irishman was always the protector of defenseless women. The Irishman never wanted destroyed goods—that was left for the Yankees to do. He said "the Union crumbled" when the President issued the emancipation proclamation, and referred to the "old United States" as a thing of the past. This lecture, teeming with sedition and treasonable sentiment, was blasphemously entitled "The Peace of God," and received with great applause, according to the Times.

SALE OF LANDS IN SOUTH CAROLINA.—The Free South newspaper of the 6th inst., gives the result of the tax sale of lands, on Hilton Head island, the previous Tuesday. Nineteen parcels, from three hundred to two thousand acres in all, were purchased by the United States at an aggregate price of $24,000. Six other parcels were sold to individuals, the highest at less than three dollars an acre. The Free South says:

"Most of the valuable locations were needed for military and naval purposes, or were woodlands needed for fuel and timber by the army. The island is inferior for agricultural purposes, and its liability to incursions from the enemy make a residence on isolated plantations not very desirable; consequently prices did not range so high as might have been expected."

Robert Small, the brave negro who seized a steam train in Charleston harbor last year, and escaped with it, has recently been promoted to the captaincy of the steamer in question. A white man was formerly in command of her, but a few weeks since he was removed for refusing to go with the vessel because he would come under fire. Robert Small took her and performed the needed service.

A storekeeper the other day stuck up on his door the following laconic advertisement:

"A boy wanted."

The next morning, on opening the store, he beheld a little urchin in a basket with the following label:

"Here he is."

THE COMMUTATION CLAUSE.—Reports from Washington state that it is probable that the commutation clause will be retained in the new conscription bill. The amount may be raised to $500, but the impression is becoming strong in the House that by turning over the commutation money to the volunteers a large army may be obtained. It is well known that before it was announced from Washington that the commutation clause would be repealed, recruiting was going on quite actively, and it seemed probable that the quotas of the loyal states would be filled by the great volunteering. But, in a great measure, volunteering has ceased, for the reason that those who were inclined to go, say they will get $1,000 by waiting to offer themselves, when the commutation clause is abolished. The substitutes study the market, and the variations caused by any law of congress, with as much keenness as the broker studies the course which may affect the price of gold.—Wisconsin

QUEER, IF TRUE.—The Marlborough (Maryland) Gazette, of Wednesday of last week, says:

"It is regarded as somewhat mysterious that the secesh young ladies sent away from Baltimore for contraband offences, appear bright and merry at the balls and theatres in New York. An underground railroad is said to be in operation somewhere."

A UNIFORM DAY FOR CONGRESSIONAL ELECTIONS.—A bill has been introduced into the house of representatives to fix a particular day for the election of representatives in congress in all the states. The Constitution says: "The times, places the manner of holding elections for senators and representatives shall be prescribed in each state by the legislature thereof, but the congress may at any time by law, make or alter such regulation, except as to the places of choosing senators." Uniformity in the time of electing representatives—and that as near as possible to the beginning of their term of service—is as essential as uniformity in the manner of election, which congress regulated in 1842.

Work on the Beloit and Madison railroad is progressing as fast as the weather will permit. Timber is being drawn on the bridge across the lake at Madison, and the grading along the whole line is nearly completed. It will be in running order some time during the winter.

Barlow's Indigo Blue.

This warranted to color more water than twice the quantity of Indigo, and to go much further than any other Wash Blue in the market. It is perfectly color and does not settle on the clothes as most of the other makes do. Dye box enclosed is a half pint of water, will make as good a liquid as any as yet made, at one third the cost.

As it is retained at the same price as the Indigo, and is so much more convenient to use, it is a great saving to all who use it. All blue put up after this date with Barlow's name on it is guaranteed. It is sold by all first-class druggists.
